

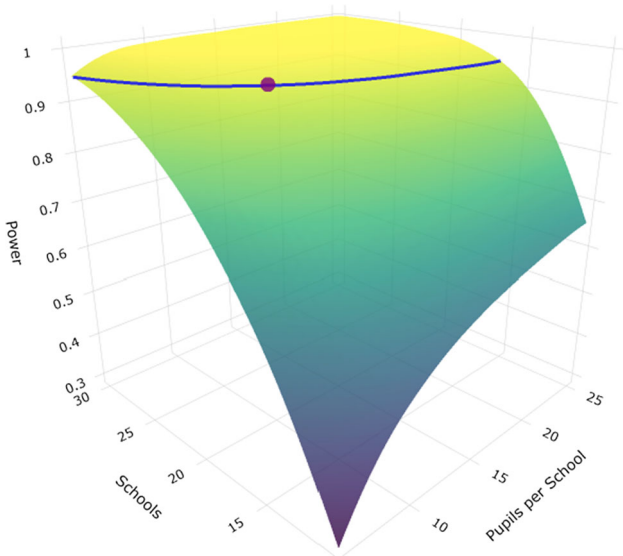

Fig. 1 Power for multiple design parameters. The surface displays the power levels for all design parameter sets. The brighter colors indicate higher power values, whereas darker colors correspond to lower values. Design sets marked with a line correspond to a power of .95. The optimal design parameter set when also accounting for costs is marked with a dot